

Meet Hassan, Hissien, and Ghisma from Darfur

A younger brother died on their mother's back, as the family fled an attack on their village. Their father is often forced to make the dangerous journey back to Darfur for food and other supplies.

Our i-ACT field team returns to their refugee camp home on the Chad/Darfur border.

Video web-casting, photos, daily actions and blog starting March.23.2009
Log on to www.stopgenocidenow.org to find out if they are safe and alive.
Join the Community.